(Rose Harvey, French horn)

Ancient Irish tune

Call to Worship, based on Psalm 104

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, you are very great.

You are clothed with honor and majesty, wrapped in light as with a garment.

You set the earth on its foundations, never to be shaken.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys; you cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for people to use to gladden the human heart.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in his works.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

May my meditation be pleasing to God, for I rejoice in the Lord. Bless the Lord, o my soul.

Praise the Lord!

Sharing our offerings

Perhaps it is, generous God, that we hope you will notice how generous we are in these moments and pat us on the back. Instead, you challenge us to offer more, not just from our abundance, but from our lives, our hearts, our and hands in serving those around us. Bless these gifts, and all whose lives will be touched by them. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Message

...and became obedient...

Pastoral Prayer, with the Lord's prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
