*Call to Worship

Like the murmur of the dove's song, # 29

Like the murmur of the dove's song,
like the challenge of her flight,
like the vigor of the wind's rush, like the new flame's eager might:
come, Holy Spirit, come.

To the members of Christ's body,
to the branches of the Vine,
to the church in faith assembled,
to her midst as gift and sign:
come, Holy Spirit, come.

With the healing of division,
with the ceaseless voice of prayer,
with the power to love and witness,
with the peace beyond compare:
come, Holy Spirit, come.

Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways to the glory of your name.

Amen.

Pastoral Prayer, with the Lord's prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

**In Memoriam is the last in a four-song series about the prodigal son as told in Luke 15, focusing on the son's feelings of unworthiness and gratitude for his father's love and forgiveness.

We are grateful to Joe Blaha for providing our service music today while Stephen is on vacation.

Oak Grove is participating in the Crop Hunger Walk October 10th. If you would like to support them, the link directly to the team donation page is:
