Prelude

*Call to Worship

The invitation is given to every person by Jesus Christ:
"Come to me! Follow me! Be my disciples!"

We come to this place, to this time, at the invitation of Jesus Christ.

In the name of Christ,

we accept the invitation to discipleship.

In the name of Christ,

as his disciples, we worship and praise God.

In the midst of a world where cruelty abounds,

we proclaim the God of Compassion.

In the midst of despair that threatens to swallow up whole lives, whole peoples, we proclaim the God of Hope.

In the midst of indifference and apathy,

we proclaim the God of Love.

Come, let us worship together and share our witness of God's living presence in the world.

Moment for Mission

Joys and Concerns

Praying together the Lord's prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Scripture Jeremiah 29: 4-7 (The Message)

This is the Message from God-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's God, to all my exiles I've taken from Jerusalem to Babylon.

"Build houses and make yourselves at home.

Put in gardens and eat what grows in that country.

Marry and have children. Encourage your children to marry and have children so that you'll thrive in that country and not waste away.

Make yourselves at home there and work for the country's welfare.

Pray for Babylon's well-being. If things go well for Babylon, things will go well for you."

Message Beyond 'How are you doing?'

*Hymn For we are strangers no more # 322

*Benediction

*Postlude

*Please stand as you are able.

We welcome Donna Hornsby today. She is a member of Roanoke First CoB and is the Christian Growth Institute Coordinator.
