I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. -2 Timothy 1:5 NRSV

A Grandmother, Lois

ST. DENIO 11.11.11.11 ("Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise")

A grandmother, Lois, had faith in you, Lord,
then Eunice, her daughter, believed in your Word.
Then her son, named Timothy, grew up to be
a young man who cherished the faith he'd received.
While some with great drama discover your truth,
for many, we learned it as children and youth.
We learned it from grandparents, parents and more —
from mentors and teachers who trusted you, Lord.
Forgive us, O Christ, when we've broken this chain
of long generations who teach of your reign;
Forgive our assuming that children and youth
should be left alone to discover your truth.
May each generation share these things anew:
the gift of salvation that we have in you,
your call to seek justice and care for the poor.
May we teach our children the things that endure.
We thank you, Christ Jesus, for nurturing ones who pass on the faith to these daughters and sons —
so youth see your church as a place they belong,
and find here a faith that is loving and strong.
