The congregation responds in bold

May our lives reflect these words taken from a hymn found in our 1898 hymnbook:

"They're one in life and one in death—
One in their joy, their trust, their faith;
One in their hope of rest above,
One in each other's faithful love.

Come, let us join our hearts and hands
all in one band, completely;

We're marching through Immanuel's land where the waters flow so sweetly."

Our Response to Christ's Call

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways to the glory of your name.

Amen.

Sharing Joys and Concerns

Pastoral Prayer, with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Hymn There's a wideness in God's mercy # 145

*Postlude

*Please stand as you are able.

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy
weak and wounded sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you full of pity love and pow'r

I will arise and go to Jesus
He will embrace me in His arms;
In the arms of my dear Savior,
Oh, there are ten thousand charms.

Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
True belief and true repentance,
Every grace that brings you nigh.
