The congregation responds in bold*

Threefold and glorious God, in Fatherly joy you created all things through the grace of your Word and the wisdom of your Spirit.

In the depth of your love for the world you gave your only Son that all might come to new life in your Spirit.

You rolled away the stone by your Fatherly hand and in the power of your Spirit raised your incarnate Son from the dead.

In your Fatherly mercy you breathed your Spirit on the fearful disciples, giving them the fire of your love to live as the body of your Son.

And so, adoring you with the apostles and prophets, the martyrs and saints, with angels and archangels, with cherubim and seraphim, and with all your glorious company in bright array, we celebrate the glory of your praise!

Amen.
