The congregation responds in bold.

Creating and liberating God, you called your people into covenant with you and sealed your trust with Moses on the mountain;

You called your people back to that covenant through your prophets and spoke in a still small voice to Elijah on the mountain.

Then, in your Son Jesus, on a mountain you stood between the Law and the Prophets and revealed the radiance of your gospel.

Transfiguring God, it is good for us to be here.

Make us your beloved, and visit all who have no one to call them beloved.

Give us grace to listen to your voice, and bring to your heart those who have no one to listen to them.

Surround us with your presence until that great Day when all things are gathered up into your perfect presence.

Amen.

Pastoral Prayer, with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
